Commencement

Arsenic and Old Lace

The Norfolk Academy Players presented their 72-73 opener, ARSENIC AND OLD LACE, on November 17 and 18. Record breaking audiences crammed Price Auditorium for the event. A combination of the talent of a fine cast and the dedication of the crew made the play an enormous success. The Players assembled one of the most able casts in their history. Anne Thiele and Jane Anderson starred as Abby and Martha Brewster, the charitable spinsters who poison lonely old men to put them out of their misery. Richard Dooling and Dan Thornton shared the male leads as the spinsters' nephews, Mortimer and Jonathon. Chris Spencer started a promising acting career as Teddy, the youngest nephew, who thinks he is Pres. Roosevelt. Pam Riley, also a newcomer, shone as Elaine Harper, the drama critic's fiancee, and Paul Davidson played her father. Other actors contributing to a fine performance were Malcolm Boswell, Les Bowman, Jud Cairns, Mark White, Alan Angleman, and Harry McCoy. The professional polish, however, came from Mr. Anthony's outstanding direction and set design and Miss Nettle's experienced make-up artistry. The high quality of the production of John Kesselring's ARSENIC AND OLD LACE continues The Players' tradition of excellent performances.

Turn Back the Clock

The Norfolk Academy Players' 1972 spring production, a comedy entitled TURN BACK THE CLOCK, was written by Marrijane and Joseph Hayes and concerns the 1920's — the dress, manners, thinking, and "liberation" that expresses the era.

As the play opens, Evie and Charlie Hill are discussing the irresponsibility and carefree manner of the younger generation. As they reflect on their own youth, the scene shifts and suddenly they are reliving the "good old days."

The audience soon learns that Evie (Barry White) has two suitors, Johnnis Stone (Richard Dooling) and Charlie Hill (David Dashiell). The action centers around this triangle with Charlie getting the girl. Larry (Fil Williams), Evie's brother, enters the scene and further complicates true love by rejecting the "nice girl", Irene (Betsey Wood), and opting for the naughty one, (Tine Lindemann). Sally (Gail Levinson) fulfilled the bratty little sister role, disdaining the older generation. Jane Anderson and Dan Thornton rounded out the cast as the bewildered "ancient generation" — the mother and father. Directed by T.A. Jordan Jr. with Malcolm Boswell's assistance, TURN BACK THE CLOCK provided a momentary escape into the free-wheeling, "liberated" 1920's.

Football 1972

This year's football team achieved an outstanding record and was clearly one of the best in Academy history. Playing a tougher schedule than usual, the Bulldogs achieved a 6-1-1 record. The team's success can be attributed mainly to the overall fine attitude of the players. Without this tremendous effort, determination, and desire on the part of the entire team, it would have been impossible to complete a season this tough with such overall success.

The team's only defeat came early in the season when the Bulldogs travelled to Collegiate High School and fell victim to the powerful Cougars. The Cougars successfully destroyed the N.A. defense and easily controlled the Bulldogs' offense. Without a doubt the Cougars fielded a superior team, certainly one of the finest the Bulldogs were to encounter this year. But the mark of a great team is one that can come back after a heart-breaking defeat. The N.A. Bulldogs did it and continued their season undefeated. The only other blemish on the Bulldogs' record came from St. Christopher's School when the Bulldogs tied them 13-13. High points of the season were probably the Norfolk Catholic game when the Bulldogs trampled their crosstown rival and the Woodberry Forest game - a hard-fought game that remained indecisive until the final seconds. The final score was 9-7, Bulldogs. For the Bulldogs there was no better way to end their season than by defeating the Woodberry Forest Tigers.

J.V. Football

1972 was a year to remember for Junior Varsity Football. Having posted a 5-1 record, the squad was generally recognized as one of the top teams in Norfolk. Coach Trickler, in his sixth year of J.V. coaching, was assisted this year by Mr. Nelson, who coached the defense and all linemen. The success of the team this year can be attributed to the depth of the squad. There were enough talented players on the team so that no one was required to start on both offense and defense.

The season was highlighted by a 20-0 victory over Maury High School in addition to victories over Lake Taylor, Norfolk Catholic, St. Christopher's, and Christchurch. The only loss was suffered at the hands of Norview High School, Norfolk's top J.V. team. The team was captained by Hank Harris and Charlie Nusbaum, both defense players. Coach Trickler not only is pleased with the team's record this year but also is smiling at the fact that ten of the 22 starters were freshmen eligible for next year's team.

FIRST ROW: M. Burton, S. McGann, C. Davis, C. Nusbaum, M. Fischer, M. Devine, B. Irvin, J. Anderson, M. Newhall, I. Bowman. SECOND ROW: J. Guion, J. Flippen, B. Kessler, G. Paine, T. O'Grady, J. ### Cross-Country

Although the year was classed as one of rebuilding, the cross-country team, finishing well with a 10-5 record, was led by returning lettermen Kirk Ruffin, Winn Friddell, Craig Forbes, and Andy Sacks, along with newcomers Scott Varland, Paco Marshall, Mark Karlen and John Hume. The team came up against stiff competition when they suffered back to back losses against Collegiate and Norfolk Catholic. However, the Harriers bounced back to post victories over Christchurch and Eastern Academy. In the next meet the team bowed to a strong St. Christopher's team; then the Bulldogs won five straight meets, two against Norfolk Christian, and one against Portsmouth Catholic, Carolton Oaks. and strong prep league opponent Virginia Episcopal. The team travelled crosstown to meet Norfolk Catholic, only to suffer defeat, but the team rebounded to soundly defeat Portsmouth Catholic in the final duel meet of the season. On Oct. 28, the Bulldogs travelled to Episcopal H.S. for the Prep League Meet. Although the team did not do so well as hoped, Kirk Ruffin placed eighth and was named to the all-prep team. The final meet of the year was the J.C.I.S. meet held on the Bulldogs' home territory. In a very surprising and disappointing meet, the Harriers could finish only fourth.

Although the team is losing its top three lettermen, Coach Flanders is expecting a strong team next year.

FIRST ROW: J. Hume, R. Whiting, J. Dozier, K. Ruffin, M. Karlen, Mr. Flanders. SECOND ROW: M. Foeller, P. Marshall, B. Buchanan, J. Hunter. THIRD ROW: M. White, F. Solomon, P. Eareckson, R. Meredith, S. Varland, A. Reynolds, C. Forbes. FOURTH ROW: B. Belton, H. McCoy, M. McKeel, B. Kahan.

Girls' Basketball

For the first time in its history, the Norfolk Academy Girls' Basketball Team began practice in late August in preparation for their new fall schedule. This transition, however, had little adverse effect on the girls for they ended with an 11-6 season overall, 9-5 in conference play, their best season yet. The Bulldog defense was particularly strong for it played a major role in containing the Tidewater Academy and Carlton Oaks offenses in two early and very close games. As the season progressed, the defense combined with a fast moving offense to overcome such rivals as Eastern Academy and Norfolk Christian. This combination also brought the Bulldogs within two points of defeating Portsmouth Catholic (last year's state champions) who went on to win second place in the Conference.

The highlight of the season came as the girls competed in the first annual Tidewater Conference of Independent Schools Tournament. Winning the first game against the host school, Carlton Oaks, the girls went down in defeat in the semifinals but finished with an impressive third place. The excellent performance of two team members, Adrienne Harrington and Saunders Ferebee, placed them in two of the five places on the All-Tournament Team. With returning starters Kathy Lindsay and Lydia Spindle joined by Anne Bundy, Sally Roper, Laura Old, Robin Gould, and Patty and Susan Lampert, the Bulldogs promise to better their impressive record during the 1973 season.

Varsity Hockey

Having lost many of last year's starters, this year's hockey team started practically from scratch. Although the team started slowly, it had its best season, finishing with a winning record of 3-2-1. Following victories over Walsingham, Kempsville, and the William and Mary freshman team, the team travelled to Williamsburg for the Tidewater Hockey Tournament where eighteen teams participated. Norfolk Academy placed two players on the Tidewater All-Tournament Team and two players on the second tournament team. This, along with a 2-0-1 tournament record, finished the season on a successful note.

Varsity Basketball

Coaches: John Tucker, Gary Laws, Barry Glenn, Dave Trickler.

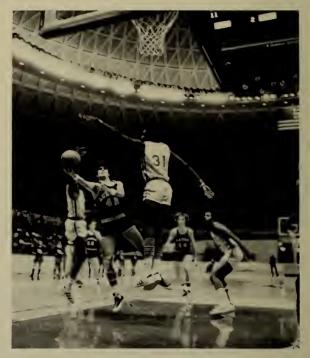

The '72-'73 Bulldog basketball team was a veteran one; returning seniors included Dan Thornton, Woody McDowell, Rob Jones, Mike Via, Leary May, Rich Davis, Pat Baker, and co-captains Mel Cruser and Marshall Martin, along with two year veteran Chip Jones, a junior. Newcomers David Kaufman and Madison Spencer, also juniors, and sophomore Hank Harris were welcome additions to the team. Coaches David Trickler and Barry Glenn installed a new fast-break offense this year which added excitement to the Bulldog repertoire. The scheduling was the toughest in Academy history as the Bulldogs took on returning Eastern Regional Champion Lake Taylor in their opening game at Scope. Competing in both the Prep League and the T.C.I.S. League, the team played a total of twenty-seven games, finishing 14-13 for the year. The Bulldogs closed out the season with the Prep League Tournament in Richmond but were eliminated by a powerful Episcopal team in the first round by one point. The highlight of the season was the T.C.I.S. championship tournament. The Bulldogs defeated Frederick Military and Norfolk Christian handily in the first two rounds. In the championship game, the Academy sought to avenge a winless drought of forty-two games against Norfolk Catholic. In a hard fought contest, the Bulldogs came up on the short end of the scoring but with a second place trophy nonetheless. The team felt that they could have done better, but it must be noted that this was the first winning season for the varsity in several years.

Varsity Soccer

Despite frequent foul weather, the Varsity soccer team had an extremely successful season, ending with the team first place in the Virginia Soccer Tournament. The defense, particularly strong this year, consisted of goalie Winn Friddell; fullbacks Lee Moore, Hough Johnson, and Jim Hunter; halfbacks Phil Stedfast, Rufus Parks, and Ferd Salomon. The offensive, team, also strong, consisted of Bruce Kahan, Pat Devine, Les Bowman, and Tom Hill. Mike Zeno and Mike Devine also played some at the end of the season. The team finsihed with an overall record of 11 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. Victories included those over V.E.S. (2-0), Christchurch (3-0), Blue Ridge (2-1), and Collegiate (2-1). The team ranked first in the Virginia Soccer League and went to St. Christopher's School in Richmond to compete for the championship, which N.A. has won for the past two years. In keeping with this tradition, the team defeated both Collegiate and V.E.S. to take first place in the league. Also for the third consecutive year, an N.A. player was named the Most Valuable Player. This award went to Pat Devine. Although this was the first year under the tutelage of Coach Chewning, the team had an excellent record and expects to continue its successful season next year.

Wrestling has come a long way in recent years at the Academy, and Mr. William R. Miller coached the 1972-1973 grapplers to a respectable 8-5 season. Coach Miller has always believed in scheduling the toughest possible competition in order to develop more fully the skill of each individual wrestler, and this year was no exception. Competing against such stalwarts as Cox, Norview, and Kempsville was certainly not an easy task, but it proved to be quite beneficial. With an excellent effort, the grapplers led AAA Regional Champions Norview 21-4, but Norview's powerhouse upper weights proved too strong as they edged Academy 28-21. The Bulldogs were impressive in defeating Maury (21-18) and Bethel (26-19) en route to a heartbreaker at Woodberry Forest, 24-33, the only defeat from an independent school. Academy easily defeated Norfolk Catholic, 35-18 and defeated Independent Schools Champion Blue Ridge in a dual match, 34-25. The Bulldogs competed in three tournaments this year and fared well in each. Brian Hunter (119 lbs) advanced to the finals of the Cox Invitational Tournament before he was defeated. Armie Armstrong and Craig Forbes both earned third place. Placing eleven of the twelve wrestlers in their respective weight class, Academy placed third in the Prep League Tournament. Craig Forbes and Armie Armstrong placed first in the VPL Tournament. In the Virginia Independent Schools Tournament, Brian Hunter captured the State Championship. Armie Armstrong placed second, followed by Corbin Johnson and Craig Forbes at third. With five starters graduating, the outcome of next year's season will be determined by hard work and dedication.

Varsity Tennis

The Norfolk Academy tennis team enjoyed quite a successful season under their new coach, Mr. Roy Bahls. Billy Brock, at number one, has been heralded as the best tennis player ever to play for N.A. He and Hank Harris comprised the number one doubles team and went undefeated through the season, winning both the Woodberry Forest and Blue Ridge Tournaments.

The team's dual-match record was 12-2, and it took second place in both Tournaments. Saint Christopher's School spoiled a perfect season for the netters as they edged by with 5-3 and 5-4 victories. The last match was particularly close. Approximately seven hours after the match had begun, the final doubles match ended in three sets, giving the Saints the victory.

The top six players, in order, were Billy Brock, Hank Harris, Andy Beskin, Lawrence Steingold, Bill Vaughan, and Michael Via. Of these six, three were defeated only once: Hank Harris (12-1), Andy Beskin (11-1), and Michael Via (11-1). Billy Brock went undefeated with an overall 18-0 record.

FIRST ROW: J. Rogers, M. Via, J. Barr, Mr. Bahls. SECOND ROW: L. Steingold, B. Andrews, B. Brock, A. Beskin, B. Vaughan. THIRD ROW: R. Meredith, C. Forbes, H. Harris, P. Levy, F. Fink.

Varsity Baseball

The Baseball Bulldogs began the 1972 schedule expecting a rough season. The team has lost many talented graduates and had only two returning veterans, Mike Harrison and Melvin Cruser. Mr. Trickler organized the group of talented, but inexperienced, players into the champions of the TCIS. The pitching staff, giving up only 2.13 earned runs per game in TCIS competition, consisted of John Breedlove, Chip Jones, and Pat Baker.

Though this team lacked the consistent hitting of past N.A. teams, it ably made up for it with good fielding and a strong determination to win. The sure N.A. infield consisted of Jim Snyder at third, Mike Harrison at shortstop, Eddie Hoffman at second, and Pat Baker or Chip Jones at first. Melvin Cruser anchored the outfield with the help of Winn Friddell, Billy Garnher, and John Breedlove.

The team entered the TCIS tournament tied for second place and by defeating both Barry Robinson and Norfolk Catholic won the tournament.

The Bulldogs also placed five players on the TCIS All-Star Team. Jim Snyder, Melvin Cruser, and Chip Jones made the first team, while Hamil Hume and Mike Harrison were given Honorable Mention. An additional highlight was Melvin Cruser's selection to the All City of Norfolk Baseball Team.

FIRST ROW: H. Oliver, M. Cruser, M. Harrison, C. Jones, P. Baker, H. Hume, J. Snyder. SEC-OND ROW: Mr. Trickler, K. Burke, W. Friddell, B. Garnher, E. Hoffman, J. Breedlove, A. Fears.

Softball

The Norfolk Academy softball team got off to a good start in 1972. With a 12-11 win over Norfolk Christian, the team showed great potential. After a number of agonizing defeats, the girls came back to defeat Churchland High School 8-1 after losing to the team 7-5 earlier in the season. The 1972 schedule ended with the annual TCIS girls' softball tournament. Churchland High School took first place over Norfolk Catholic High School in an exciting tournament game.

Under the direction of Mrs. Winnie Patterson, the team finished with a 3-6 record. Members of the team included Adrienne Harrington, Stuart Shepheard, Paula Lampert, Patty Lampert, Edith Barry, Becky Rumble, Liz Campbell, Anne Marshall, and Susan Goldner. Mrs. Patterson hopes 1972's experience will be very valuable for 1973's team.

Girls' Tennis

The girls' 1972 tennis team performed excellently to acquire a 7 and 1 record. The only loss was to William and Mary. Some of the teams which competed with the NA girls were from Suffolk High School, Hampton Roads Academy, James Blair High School, and Franklin High School. For the first time the Norfolk Academy girls participated in the Virginia High School State Tournament in which Sally Old went to the finals. The doubles team, Kathy Lindsay and Clayton Vail, were defeated in the semi-finals. The team won more matches than any other school in the state event. The top members of the '72 team were Sally Old, Kathy Lindsay, Clayton Vail, Cathy Devine, Saunders Ferebee, and Lydia Spindle.

Track

The 1972 track team was one of the strongest teams in several seasons. The team's record was 5 wins and 4 losses. N.A. placed fifth in the Virginia Prep League Meet, sixth in the Suffolk Invitationals, and second in the TCIS. The 1972 season began with the Academy Relays in which the team scored many strong victories.

1972 was a good year for new school records. Rob Eaton set a new record in the two mile. Ken Lampert broke his 1971 record in the mile three times, and John Moran broke his '71 record in the 880 three times. One of the strongest events of the year was the mile relay. The team included Rich Davis, John Moran, Tom Bertels, and Jay Everhart. They broke the school record three times and were first in the Virginia Prep League Meet. Rich Davis tied the school record in the 100 with 10.1.

Lacrosse

Last year's varsity lacrosse team, coached by Mr. Craig Jackson and Mr. Tinsley Van Durand, showed tremendous progress throughout the season. The team members were mostly underclassmen with little experience. Outstanding defensemen included Hough Johnson, Billy Thomas, and Henry Jones, while attack positions were dominated by Eddie Semler, John Willcox, and John Cromwell. The first and second midfields included Peter Wales, Phil Stedfast, Rufus Parks, Peyton Via, Mark Johnson, and Robert Eley. The goalie for the season was Robbie Hanckel.

A record of one win and seven losses hardly indicated the hard work, spirit, and determination which was present throughout the season. The schedule included two games with each of the following schools: William and Mary, Blue Ridge, St. Christopher's, and Woodberry Forest. The only victory came over Blue Ridge when the Bulldogs defeated the Barons 5-4.

Lacrosse is a fast growing sport at N.A. and Coaches Jackson and Van Duran view future seasons with encouragement.

FIRST ROW: C. Hammaker, D. Fohl, J. Willcox, E. Semler, M. Johnson, R. Perrie, R. Waive, R. Cottingham. SECOND ROW: C. Jackson, (coach), S. Jordan, N. Karp, B. Mahanes, R. Eley, A. Cistola, H.
